HUGO EYEWEAR FALL/WINTER
2014/2015 COLLECTION

HUGO Fall/Winter 2014/2015 eyewear collection presents futuristic shapes, in line with the brand contemporary and progressive DNA.

Lightness and design are the core elements of the sunglasses while the optical proposal stands out with bold shapes reproducing the brand distinctive colors: black and red.

FUTURISTIC ATTITUDE – STYLE: HUGO 0123/S

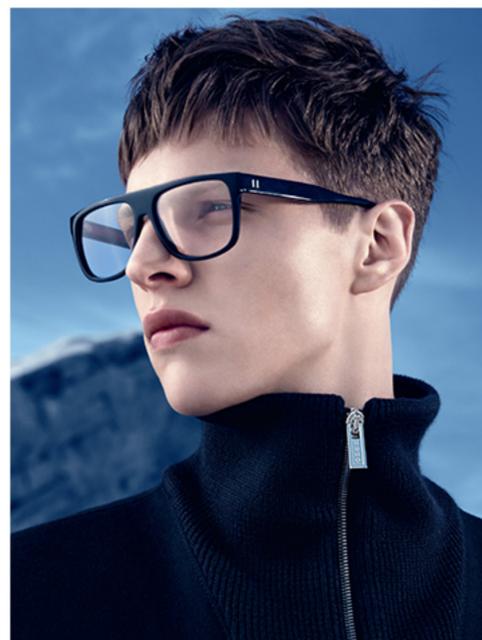

The perfect complement of an contemporary creative look, the oversize sun mask accents sharp edges and a metallic structure visible on the front, highlighted by the tones of palladium or dark ruthenium with flash mirror or gray lenses.

CONTEMPORARY PERSONALITY – STYLE: HUGO 0128

These acetate squared optical frames feature a flat front top line and unique three-layer profiles in the signature colors of black and red, but also in the classic tones of havana/crystal/havana, gray/crystal/gray or total crystal blue.
